

HUNGARY AFTER 2014: A NEW PATH FOR SUSTAINABLE GROWTH

A SUMMIT ON GREEN JOBS

presented by the Progressive Economic Policy Foundation in collaboration with

Heinrich-Böll-Stiftung
Green European Foundation

with the partnership of:
Institute for European Democrats

23-24th January, 2014, Budapest, Hungary

Venue
Mercure Budapest City Center Hotel
20 Váci utca, Budapest, Hungary

Thursday, 23rd of January

3.00 p.m. Registration

4.00 p.m.: Introduction

Miklós Sebők, President, Progressive Economic Policy Foundation

4.05. p.m.: Keynote speech

“Green Growth in Europe – Strategies, Problems and Possibilities”

Reinhard Bütikofer, co-chair, European Green Party, Member of the European Parliament

4.40. p.m.: Speeches

“Green Growth in Hungary – Strategies, Problems and Possibilities”

Gordon Bajnai, former Prime Minister of Hungary, leader, Együtt-PM

Attila Mesterházy, president, MSZP

András Schiffer, co-chair, LMP

Benedek Jávor, co-chair, PM

5.30 p.m. Questions

6.00 p.m.: Dinner (Buffet)

Friday, 24th of January

9.15 a.m. Registration

10.00 a.m. Plenary session – „Economic Policies for a Green Future“

Gábor Scheiring, MP, Együtt-PM

Philippe Lamberts, MEP, The Greens-European Free Alliance

Nikos Kouyialis, Minister for Agriculture, natural resources and the environment, Cyprus

11.00 a.m. Questions

11.30 a.m.: Lunch (Buffet)

1.00 p.m.: Workshop: FINANCING GREEN GROWTH

Philippe Lamberts, MEP, The Greens-European Free Alliance

András Lukács, Representative of Levegő Munkacsoport

János Kun, former chief advisor, Prime Minister's Office, former head of department, FSA

2.00 p.m.: Workshop: ENERGY

Bas Eickhout, MEP, The Greens-European Free Alliance

Ada Ámon, President, Energy Club

Benedek Jávor, Co-chair, Együtt-PM

Bernadett Szél, MP, Co-chair, LMP

3:00 p.m. Coffee break

3.30 p.m.: Workshop: GREEN JOBS and EMPLOYMENT

Radoslaw Owczarzak – DG Employment, European Commission

Tamás Székely – president, “Autonómok” Trade Union

László Herczog – former Minister, Employment Ministry

4.30 p.m. Farewell Remarks and End of the Conference